Slane is also a great base from where you can enjoy:

GOLF

From the challenging parklands at Headfort, Royal Tara and Co. Meath Golf Club to the historic old links at Laytown and Bettystown, golfers of all ages and standards will find a course to suit their game. Some courses include:

Royal Tara Golf Club, Co Meath Golf Club, Headfort Golf Club, Knightsbrook Golf Club. Check out their websites for details.

All of these are just a short drive from Slane

RACING

Where else to go racing than in County Meath. There is plenty of choice. National Hunt and Flat racing is regularly held at Fairyhouse (home of the Irish Grand National) and Bellewstown (for over 300yrs). Navan Racecourse is one of the finest possible tests for National Hunt horses. Laytown is a unique event where the horses race on the beach. Visit the Racing Calendar on www.meath.ie for full details.

Another short drive from Slane Village.

BEACHES

Where the salty air meets the rolling hills, there are plenty of spectacular beaches close by to be explored and enjoyed.

Bettystown is a long established seaside resort with a fine, sandy stretch of beach from Laytown to the mouth of the River Boyne at Mornington.

Clogherhead in the small fishing village of Clogherhead in County Louth is a popular tourist destination for it's unspoiled golden sands and wonderful views.

Port Beach in County Louth is fronted by a mature dune area which is perfect for picnics and offers plenty of play space for children.

All of these are less than 30 mins drive from Slane Village.
