

Entertainment In Slane

Slane is a wonderful place to spend an evening, after enjoying a meal in one of the local restaurants you could pop in for a drink in any of the local pubs and receive a warm welcome and some live music and great chat.

Boyles Pub

Boyles is a charming venue in the middle of musically famous Slane. A small venue with a capacity of just 60 seated they specialise in staging intimate gigs. With Live music five nights a week it is a must visit when in Slane. Come to the Irish Folk session every Wednesday from 10.pm ,all welcome to join in with a song.

Tel. 086 8842674 / www.boylesofslane.com

The Boyne Valley Inn

Locally known as the 'Top Shop', this pub welcomes all. With a pool table and cosy snug there's a place to suit everybody. All are welcome to Bingo held every Tuesday night. Also Walking Tours of Slane by Mick Kelly (duration 2 hrs) .Tel. 041 9820970/087 9377040

The Village Inn

Right on the crossroads of Slane Village, the Village Inn enjoys extensive Slane Rock Concert memorabilia. A perfect spot to enjoy live GAA matches and one of the best pints of Guinness there is. Tel. 041 9824230

Lynch's Bar

With a pool table and juke box Lynch's is a great spot to visit. Large function room available for events.